

Field Technicians/Laborers

A dynamic professional position that calls for a variety of skills and responsibilities. Assignments involve integrated team work and participation in: Emergency Response services to mitigate and recover the release of oil and hazardous materials to land and water, soil and groundwater remediation activities, installation of subsurface recovery systems, confined space entry and the cleaning of tanks and utility manholes, decontamination of impacted buildings and equipment, and site restoration services. Year-round work primarily on short duration projects throughout New England.

REQUIRED:

- ✓ Minimum of one (1) year industry experience
- ✓ OSHA 40-Hour Hazardous Waste Operations and Emergency Response (HAZWOPER) training certification with current 8 Hr refresher training certificate

PREFERRED:

- ✓ Confined space entry training certification
- ✓ Confined space rescue training certification
- ✓ Excavation and trenching safety training certification
- ✓ Red Cross CPR and/or First Aid certification
- ✓ CDL with Hazardous Materials endorsement
- ✓ Construction site or related industry experience